

...management of...
...Northridge President...
...$400,000...
...$1 billion loss since 2008...
...The Cal State System...
...ma to her head and a baseball bat was seized as evidence.
...The standoff ended when a San Francisco SWAT sniper shot Hughes. Police officials approved the shooting in advance, saying Hughes had become too much of a threat.
...Hughes was found with two handguns, a semi-automatic handgun and a pistol.
...He'd fired 13-20 shots, according to various reports.
...“They’re still counting shells and bullet holes,” said Taylor.

...student funds.”
...Bessom, it was more than n in civic protest. “My pressure was really said Bessom, who ended with a salad.

...dy, which was in the front of Tower Market, reported around 8...
...ording to an employee market. Carol Barton, ant manager, said the 51 or 52 years old.
...said the man had vis- market earlier in the und was staggering ly intoxicated.

...by found him later at op and called for an e.
...s to resuscitate him ccessful.

...said the man had injuries, and that would be conducted he the cause of man’s identity was pending notifica- of kin.

— Cathy Bussewitz

KEEGAN: Trione, Green receive standing ovations for their efforts

CONTINUED FROM PAGE B1

Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital, which is operated by St. Joseph Health System.

Past recipients include Gene Traverso in 2011, John O’Brien in 2010, Bill Friedman in 2009,

Bill and M-L Reinking in 2008, Al Maggini in 2007 and Daniel and Suzanne Lanahan in 2006.

You can reach Staff Writer Martin Espinoza at 521-5213 or martin.espinoza@pressdemocrat.com

SUPERINTENDENT: Board will have final decision on schools’ new hire

CONTINUED FROM PAGE B1

with a community advisory committee expected to be made up of teachers, school staff, community

The first round of interviews is scheduled for June 1 with finalists returning on June 2, Chun said.